With respect to the return or destruction by the Receiving Party of Confidential Information, this Section 12.6 (Return, Destruction, and Retention of Confidential Information) will not be applicable to: (a) Confidential Information that the Receiving Party is required by applicable law, including, but not limited to, securities and regulatory laws, to retain a copy of such Confidential Information; and (b) Confidential Information that is retained in any of Receiving Party's computer systems, hard drives, and other electronic media storage devices as a result of automatic archiving and back-up procedures. Regardless of the return, destruction, or retention of the Confidential Information, the Receiving Party will continue to be bound by the obligations of confidentiality as set forth in this Agreement. Further, any Confidential Information retained by the Receiving Party will not be accessible by the Receiving Party and their Personnel (other than Personnel whose functions are primarily information technology, legal and/or compliance in nature) for as long as such Confidential Information is retained..

The following provisions of this Agreement will survive termination of this Agreement: Section 2.8 (Aggregated Statistics); Section 2.9 (Feedback); Section 6 (Fees and Payment Terms), Section 7 (Ownership); Section 8 (Confidentiality); Section 9 (Representations and Warranties; and Disclaimers); Section 10 (Indemnification); Section 11 (Limitation of Liability); Section 12.5 (Obligations upon Termination); Section 12.6 (Return, Destruction, and Retention of Confidential Information); Section 12.7 (Survival Clauses); Section 13 (General); Exhibit A (Definitions); Exhibit D (Tiered Dispute Resolution); and any other provisions by their nature that would survive the termination of this Agreement.

13.0 GENERAL

13.1 Governing Law. Any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of, resulting from, caused by and/or related to this Agreement, its subject matter, or its formation will be governed by and construed in accordance with (a) the laws of the state which has venue and jurisdiction, without reference to its conflicts of laws and choice of law rules or principles, and (b) any controlling United States federal laws. The Parties irrevocably agree that the federal and state courts located in San Francisco county, California, will have exclusive venue and jurisdiction to adjudicate and settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of, resulting from, caused by, and/or related to this Agreement, its subject matter, or its formation. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is expressly excluded from application to this Agreement.

13.2 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the full understanding of the Parties hereto with respect to the specific subject matter hereof and supersedes and cancels all other previous agreements, negotiations, commitments, discussions, and warranties, whether oral or in writing, with respect to such subject matter. The Parties have not relied on any statement, representation, warranty, or agreement of the other Party or of any other person on such Party's behalf, including any representations, warranties, or agreements arising from statute or otherwise in law, except for the representations, warranties, or agreements expressly contained in this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 13.2 (Entire Agreement) purports to limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

13.3 Assignment. This Agreement and the rights and obligations hereunder may not be assigned, assumed, delegated, novated, or transferred by Customer, without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. Subject to the foregoing sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties, their successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment, assumption, delegation, novation, and/or transfer of rights and/or obligations under this Agreement in violation of this Section 13.3 (Assignment) will be null and void.

13.4 Tiered Dispute Resolution and Arbitration. The Parties agree to resolve any disputes, as set forth in Exhibit D.

13.5 Compliance with Laws. Each Party agrees to comply with all applicable country, federal, state, and local laws and regulations that apply to such Party's performance under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, all intellectual property laws and Data Protection Laws.

13.6 Waiver. The waiver by either of the Parties hereto of any breach of any term, provision, condition, or covenant hereof of the other Party will not be construed to be either a waiver of any succeeding breach of any term, provision, condition, or covenant, a waiver of the term, provision, condition, or covenant itself, or remedy. A waiver of any term, provision, condition, covenant, or breach of this Agreement by either Party will only be effective if given in writing and signed by both Parties, and then only in the instance and for the purpose for which it is given.

13.7 Severable. The provisions or parts of provisions of this Agreement will be fully severable and the invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement under any applicable present or future law will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions hereunder. If any provision of this Agreement or part of any provision is or becomes illegal, invalid, or unenforceable but would be legal, valid, and enforceable if some part of it was deleted or modified, the provision or part-provision in question will apply with such deletions or modifications as may be necessary to make the provision legal, valid and enforceable. In the event of such deletion or modification, the Parties will negotiate in good faith in order to agree the terms of a mutually acceptable alternative provision. If any portion of this Agreement is, for any reason, held to be excessively broad as to duration, geographical scope, activity, or subject, it will be construed by limiting and reducing it, so as to be enforceable to the extent allowed by the then applicable law.

13.8 Reasonable Attorneys' Fees. If any action at law or in equity is brought to enforce or interpret the provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Party in such action will be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Further, if any action at law determines a Party to be the prevailing Party under circumstances where the prevailing Party won on some but not all of the claims and counterclaims, the prevailing party may be entitled to an appropriate percentage of the costs and attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by the prevailing Party in connection with the action at law.

13.9 Equitable Relief. Each of the Parties hereto acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of any breach or threatened breach of any term, provision, condition, covenant, or agreement set forth in this Agreement by either Party, money damages may be inadequate with respect to any such breach or threatened breach and the non-breaching Party may have no adequate remedy at law. It is accordingly agreed that each of the Parties hereto will be entitled, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled by law or in equity, to seek injunctive relief, equitable relief, and/or to compel specific performance without bond to prevent breaches by the other Party thereto of any term, provision, condition, covenant, or agreement of such other Party contained in this Agreement without proof of special damages.

13.10 Non-Solicitation. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the relationship that they each have with their employees, consultants or independent contractors are valuable business assets. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Parties agree that during the Term, and for the period of twelve (12) months after the termination of this Agreement, for any reason, neither Party will, as an officer, director, employee, consultant, owner, partner, or in any other capacity, either directly or through others, solicit, induce, encourage any person known by a Party to be an employee, consultant or independent contractor of the other Party to terminate their relationship with such Party. Accordingly, during the Term and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, if either Party engages or hires any employee, consultant, or independent contractor of the other Party, then the hiring Party will promptly pay to the other Party a fee equal to thirty percent (30%) of the employee, consultant, or independent contractor's annual salary or fees, as applicable (where twenty percent (20%) will be for finding a replacement and ten percent (10%) will be for training a replacement). The provisions of this Section 13.10 (Non-Solicitation) will not restrict or preclude a Party from making generalized searches for employees, consultants or independent contractors by the use of advertisements online or in the media or by engaging search firms to engage in the searches that are not targeted or focused on the other Party's employees, consultants, or independent contractors.

13.11 Non-Disparagement. At any time, Customer agrees that they will not engage, directly or indirectly, in any form of conduct, make any statements, or representations, either oral or written, in any form (including, without limitation, via social media, press releases, websites, and other means), that defames, disparages, impugns, criticizes, sullies, maligns, compromises, denigrates, or otherwise impairs the reputation, integrity, goodwill, brand, and/or interest (including, without limitation, the repetition or distribution of derogatory rumors, allegations, misleading, negative, and/or false statements and/or comments) of Company. Nothing in this Section 13.11 (Non-Disparagement) however will prevent Customer from providing truthful testimony or information (a) in any processing or in response to any request from any governmental agency, judicial, or arbitral; or (b) as otherwise required by law.

13.12 Independent Entities. The Parties entering into this Agreement are and will continue to be independent entities and will so represent themselves in all regards. Accordingly, nothing contained herein will be deemed to constitute the Parties as a partnership, joint venture, employer/employee, principal/agent or any other type of relationship, nor to make one Party liable in whole or in part for any obligations assumed by the other herein or for any liability incurred by the other Party in carrying out any of the provisions hereof, or otherwise. Neither Party is the agent of the other, and neither Party may make commitments or enter into any agreements on the other's behalf. The Parties agree that each Party's employees will not be an employee of the other Party. Each Party will be responsible for all employment rights and benefits of their own employees, including without limitation (a) federal, state and local income and employment taxes and social security contributions; (b) workers' compensation, health benefits, vacation and holiday pay, profit sharing, retirement, pension, disability benefits, and other health and welfare benefits, plans or programs and (c) insurance.

13.13 Security. Company will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to maintain administrative, physical, and technical safeguards to protect the security, confidentiality, and integrity of End Users Data and Personal Data.

13.14 Notice. Any notice or other communication given to a Party under or in connection with this Agreement will be in writing, addressed to the other Party at their registered office, and delivered personally, sent by email or sent by post, express mail or commercial courier. Any notice required or permitted to be given by the provisions of this Agreement will be conclusively deemed to have been received on the day it is delivered to that Party as set forth in the forgoing with acknowledgment of receipt.

13.15 Drafting Party, Headings, Translation, and Communications. This Agreement will not be construed in favor of or against either Party solely on the basis of a Party's drafting or participation in the drafting of any portion of this Agreement. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and are in no way intended to describe, interpret, define, or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any of its provisions. In the event this Agreement is translated into any language other than the English language, the meanings contained in the English language version will control and be used in any interpretation or dispute related to this Agreement. All documents incorporated herein by reference, notices, and any other communications related to this Agreement will be in the English language.

The Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve any claim, dispute or other matter in question arising out of or relating to this Agreement ("Dispute") promptly by negotiation between executives who have authority to settle the controversy and who are at a higher level of management than the persons with direct responsibility for administration of this Agreement. Either Party may give the other Party written notice of any Dispute not resolved in the normal course of business. Within fifteen (15) calendar days after delivery of the notice, the receiving Party will submit to the other a written response. The notice and response will include with reasonable particularity (a) a statement of each Party's position and a summary of arguments supporting that position, and (b) the name and title of the executive who will represent that Party and of any other person who will accompany the executive. Within thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of the notice, the executives of both Parties will meet at a mutually acceptable time and place.

- 1.2 First Meeting. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the negotiating Parties, the above-described negotiation will end at the close of the first meeting of executives described above (“First Meeting”). Such closure will not preclude continuing or later negotiations, if desired.
- 1.3 Confidential Communications. All offers, promises, conduct and statements, whether oral or written, made in the course of the negotiation by either of the Parties, their agents, employees, experts and attorneys are confidential, privileged and inadmissible for any purpose, including impeachment, in arbitration or other proceedings involving the Parties; provided, that, evidence that is otherwise admissible or discoverable will not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable as a result of its use in the negotiation.

- 1.5 Tolling. All applicable statutes of limitation and defenses based upon the passage of time will be tolled while the procedures specified in this Section 1 (Dispute Resolution) of this Exhibit D are pending and for thirty (30) calendar days thereafter. The Parties will take such action, if any, required to effectuate such tolling.

2.0 ARBITRATION

Within thirty (30) calendar days after the First Meeting, if the Parties cannot resolve the Dispute, as set forth in Section 1 (Dispute Resolution) of this Exhibit D, then a Party or the Parties may submit such Dispute to binding arbitration, as set forth in this Section 2 (Arbitration) of this Exhibit D.

After an informal dispute resolution process, the Parties agree that any remaining dispute, claim, or controversy between the Parties arising out of, resulting from, in connection with, or relating in any way to this Agreement (whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation, or any other legal theory, and whether the claims arise during or after the termination of this Agreement), including the determination of the scope of applicability of this Agreement to arbitrate, will be determined through binding arbitration administered by the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (“JAMS”).
- 2.2 Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party may seek emergency injunctive relief or other provisional relief at any time in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 2.3 Rules and Procedures. Arbitration will be conducted pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures of JAMS. Such disputes will be heard by a single arbitrator, selected by the JAMS default process for selecting arbitrators.
- 2.4 Governing Law and Venue. Arbitration will take place in San Francisco, California or a city located near San Francisco, California. The Agreement and substantive rights of the Parties will be governed by the laws of the State of California, without reference to its conflict of laws or choice of law rules or principles. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge that this Agreement evidences a transaction involving interstate commerce, and the arbitration conducted pursuant to the terms of this Agreement will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act.

- 2.5 Confidentiality. The Parties will maintain the confidential nature of the arbitration proceeding, including the information exchanged in discovery and the content or results of the Hearing (defined below) and award, unless otherwise required by law or judicial decision.
- 2.6 Timelines. Before the first preliminary conference, the Parties will agree in writing to a timeline for the completion of arbitration. The timeline will contain deadlines for discovery, conducting an evidentiary hearing on the merits (“Hearing”), and the issuance of the Arbitrator's award. The Arbitrator will agree to comply with this schedule before accepting appointment.
- 2.7 Discovery. The Parties shall complete an exchange of all relevant, non-privileged documents, including, without limitation, copies of all documents in their possession or control on which they rely in support of their positions, and names of individuals whom they may call as witnesses at the arbitration Hearing. There will be no further discovery, such as depositions or expert discovery. The Parties shall promptly notify the Arbitrator if a dispute exists regarding discovery issues, and a conference will be arranged with the Arbitrator, either by telephone or in person, and the Arbitrator shall decide the dispute within three (3) business days.
- 2.8 Costs and Fees. Each Party will bear an equal share of the administrative costs and fees of arbitration, including the Arbitrator’s fees. The Arbitrator will award to the prevailing Party, if any, the costs and attorneys’ fees reasonably incurred by the prevailing Party in connection with the arbitration. If the Arbitrator determines a Party to be the prevailing Party under circumstances where the prevailing Party won on some but not all of the claims and counterclaims, the Arbitrator may award the prevailing Party an appropriate percentage of the costs and attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by the prevailing Party in connection with the arbitration.
- 2.9 Award. The award of the Arbitrator will be accompanied by a brief, reasoned written opinion. The Arbitrator is not empowered to award (a) incidental, indirect, or consequential damages including damages for lost profits; or (b) punitive or exemplary damages, except where permitted by statute, and the Parties waive any right to recover any such damages. The Parties will have no right to appeal an award from the Arbitrator. Judgment on the award finally rendered by the Arbitrator may be entered into a court having jurisdiction thereof.
